Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Students of Reformed theology recognize that Abraham Kuyper was one of the premier theologians of the last two centuries. He was also a notable politician, founding the Antirevolutionary Party and serving as a member of the Dutch Parliament and eventually becoming prime minister of the Netherlands. He produced a body of neo-Calvinist political thought that has enduring value for the political engagement of the Christian community in our time. His political theory stands in continuity with John Calvin's doctrine of the church and social reformation, even as the current James Madison's teaching on church and state impacted it. Lillback, President, Westminster Theological Seminary, President, The Providence Forum In this important book, Mark Larson demonstrates that Kuyper's political thought is a fecund vein of political theory upon...
