Excerpt: . . . In the renewed mind everything is in harmony so long as we dwell under the restricting power of truth; which restrains the eagerness and activity of the natural mind, and prevents it from all hurried and mistaken steps. --Waring. JULY. Let your moderation be known unto all all men. --Philippians iv. 5. Moderation in thought, word, and deed is a great attainment. It is good to remember this, and constantly to feel after that inward calmness which keeps the mind equable and steadfast. --Solitaire. 2. The things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal. --1 Cor. iv. 18. For want of seeking the universal and immutable law of truth, men see nothing that is real, nothing but what deceives. --Fenelon. Through Thy precepts I get understanding; therefore I hate ever)false way. --Psalm cxix. 104. What precepts are...

Reviews

This publication may be really worth a go through, and a lot better than other. It really is written in simple terms and never difficult to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

-- Natalie Abbott

This book will not be simple to get going on reading but extremely exciting to read through. Yes, it can be playful, still an interesting and amazing literature. I am very easily could possibly get a delight of reading a written book.
