Excerpt: .At the same time, we believe that Mr. Lathbury and the school which he represents are guilty of vagueness in expression when they speak and write of the redemption of humanity by the law of loving service, or any other law. Redemption is by blood and by blood alone. In Him we have redemption through His blood, the remission of sins, according to the riches of His grace. And this redemption is social only as it is individual. Humanity will be redeemed just in proportion to the application of redemption to the separate men, women, and children, who together make up the sum of humanity. There is no such thing possible as--if we may so express it--salvation in the lump. The lump is leavened as the yeast within it comes into contact with the individual atoms that enter into its composition. The body lives as its members live. This truth Jesus Christ, man's sole Redeemer, both taught and illustrated while here on earth. He dealt with the individual, each by himself apart, and in commissioning His disciples bade them preach the Gospel to every creature. Society will not be redeemed by love, but love will inspire effort to bring to the knowledge of every member of the human family the story of redemption through that sacrifice the completion of which Calvary saw, when Christ died--the Just for the unjust--and took away the sin of the world in His dying.
