Martin Zumbuehl's professional activities began as a carpenter apprentice in a tiny Swiss village and started later a bank apprenticeship finishing it successfully in Lucerne. Then he increased his professional and linguist knowledge through learning by doing in companies of the banking, industrial and insurance sectors in Switzerland and abroad. In 1976 he wrote his 1st book Finanzanalyse in der Praxis, published in Germany, and taught co-workers and students in the workplace and at the university. At a major US he was credit officer and VP. At a Swiss Bank senior financial analyst and VP to clean and build up the desolated research. Hindered by all means to create top research products he was harassed by unqualified and envious managers. Working as an independent consultant 1992-2003 he received orders of all kind. In May 2003 he moved to Thailand to realize new projects. In 2006 he wrote his 2nd book Justice, Ethics and Morals in Switzerland and Abroad, in 2007 the 3rd book Systematically Analysis for Everyone of Companies Worldwide and in 2008 the new...

Reviews

This publication is amazing. It is definitely basic but shocks in the fifty percent of your publication. You won't feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you question me).
