Recommendation 3: Continue to work with the Department of Homeland Security and JP Morgan Chase to ensure that states and merchants do not tax purchases at the point of sale.

Management Comments and OIG Analysis FEMA generally concurred with the recommendations. With respect to recommendation 2, FEMA said it would take advantage of the robust monitoring tools available under the General Services Administration SmartPay 2 program. With respect to recommendation 3, FEMA said it would work with the Department of Homeland Security and the purchase card bank to ensure that States and merchants do not tax purchases at the point of sale. We consider FEMAs planned actions responsive to the recommendation. Addressing GSA SmartPay 2 and CCTMS Issues Since transitioning to GSA SmartPay 2 in June 2009, FEMA cardholders and AOs have had difficulty using their new accounts. Reported problems include authorized users not being able to log into the banks Electronic Access System, view accounts or statements,...

Reviews

This book is definitely worth acquiring. I have gone through and so I am certain that I will likely to read through again again in the future. Its been printed in an exceptionally basic way in fact it is only after I finished reading this publication in which actually altered me, change the way in my opinion.
