By P J Lazos

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Robert John Puzauskie (illustrator). 221 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Six Sisters, three stories, one theme: Know Thyself. A Gathering of One: Twins, Patrice and Danielle began battling in the womb. When hard-headed, 3-year old Danielle drinks Drano while Patrice watches in horror, unable to stop her, the battle becomes a war. Patrice triages the situation, making Danielle vomit to rid herself of the poison, but the damage is done and the blame squarely laid on Patrice's shoulders, assuring the sisters remain on a lifelong collision course. Anger, jealousy, and indignation may have sparked their dysfunction, but duty and familial obligation keeps them tethered long after the bonds of childhood have morphed into the shackles of adult responsibilities. May the best sister win. List of 55: Following her mother's death, Belinda manages to survive childhood despite her sister-turned-caretaker, Simone's long list of no's: no money, no car, no electricity, no food, and ultimately, no Simone. Belinda's abysmal treatment at the hands of the reckless and psychologically abusive Simone left layers of scar tissue so deep...
