The Accidental Psychic: How I Went from Skeptic to Psychic in Thirty Years in Just 500 Easy Steps

By Deborah Raku

Deborah Jane Dickson, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Deborah Raku is a psychic medium, a Reiki Master Teacher, and a Reconnective Healing Practitioner with an energy healing practice that involves the help of spirit guides and masters. Deborah is not a turban-wearing psychic with the ability to predict the future. Instead, she describes her gifts by saying that she simply has great insight into the present. She was not born this way. Forty years ago she was a computer programmer with a skeptical interest in the metaphysical. That interest led to a decades-long meditation practice, a growing ability to listen to the intuitive voice, a premonition dream about a teacher she met a few days later, an energy blast in Sedona that set her on a healing path, a channeled journal that helped her navigate a painful heartbreak, a memory of a life between lives, and an illuminating journey to see John of God. Deborah is convinced from her experiences that these abilities are available to us all - it is only a matter of beginning to listen. This memoir is an account of...
