

Perfume: The Story of a Murderer

By Patrick Süskind

Penguin Books Ltd, United Kingdom, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 181 x 111 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Patrick Suskind's Perfume is a classic novel of death and sensuality in Paris, published as a Penguin Essential for the first time. In eighteenth-century France there lived a man who was one of the most gifted and abominable personages in an era that knew no lack of gifted and abominable personages. His name was Jean-Baptiste Grenouille, and if his name has been forgotten today, it is certainly not because Grenouille fell short of those more famous blackguards when it came to arrogance, misanthropy, immorality, or, more succinctly, wickedness, but because his gifts and his sole ambition were restricted to a domain that leaves no traces in history: to the fleeting realm of scent. An astonishing tour de force both in concept and execution. (Guardian). A fantastic tale of murder and twisted eroticism controlled by a disgusted loathing of humanity. Clever, stylish, absorbing and well worth reading. (Literary Review). A meditation on the nature of death, desire and decay. A remarkable debut. (Peter Ackroyd, The New York Times Book Review). Unlike anything else one has read. A phenomenon. Everyone seems to want..

Reviews

This book is definitely worth acquiring. I have gone through and so I am certain that I will likely to read through again again in the future. Its been printed in an exceptionally basic way in fact it is only after I finished reading this publication in which actually altered me, change the way in my opinion.
