Holes in Their Hearts

By John Wallace

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The search for personal joy that is found within fulfilling relationships is one of history's continuing sagas. For some people obtaining such a relationship becomes a life-long pursuit. For others it is less of a goal and more of a by-line to each one's individual story. In either case a fundamental question remains: Do these relationships simply fall into place, or is there a guiding force that can draw the people together? HOLES IN THEIR HEARTS author John Wallace challenges the reader to avoid being too quick with an answer to that question until all of the individual characters in this fast-paced story have been examined. Key to how one examines the characters clearly becomes the underlying second story within HOLES IN THEIR HEARTS. One method of examination could be based upon the viewpoint that life is nothing more than a series of happenstances that hold neither pattern nor direction. An opposing view might hold that everything is already dictated for humans with no way to avoid one's destiny. Still another method would fall somewhere...
